You understand that the deposit you made is non-refundable since the designers from which we order your gown do not permit cancellations once the order is placed.

Here are some things to expect and look forward to: We will call you and let you know when we receive your dress. At that point we will need the final payment, at which time you can schedule an appointment to come in and try your gown on. If there are no alterations required, you can take your gown! If your dress needs alterations another appointment will be required.

Alterations: Depending on what needs to be done you should budget $200 to $350 for alterations on a Bridal Gown. Plan to have two or more fittings and allow us at least three to six weeks to work on your dress.

Pressing: Pressing is not included in alterations so also budget for that. Pressings range from $65 to $95 depending on the gown type.
